Copied from picture taken of medallion for 'old jail' early Gladewater - was placed on property of Benjamin F. Phillips, but was removed as some of the wording was incorrect. Ben Phillips was not a minister - etc. Typed by Mildred Wood Barker. 4 November 1987

In Texas frontier towns, jails were scarce. Speedy court trials in the Republic of Texas, 1836-1844, as a rule, had prisoners sentenced or released within a very short time. As counties were organized and towns incorporated, they were empowered to build jails. The first uniform State Law for use of tax money to build jails was enacted in 1874.

When the East Texas oil boom in 1931 caused influx of a new, violent population, Gladewater had no jail. The town was incorporated at once and 7
Ben Phillips a minister was elected mayor. A log cabin he owned became the jail and city hall. With addition of a board-and-batten upper story, for offices. The first floor divided into two jail cells, one for men and one for women. Bolted into the logs and running along the walls beside the bunks were heavy chains which men prisoners were hand cuffed. Jeff Johnson, Gladewater's first constable, was the jailer.

Even more premitive were early jails in many West Texas towns. These were mesquite trees or posts to which prisoners were handcuffed or chained. On the frontiers, during storms, some law officers had to bring into privately owned buildings or their own homes dangerous criminals who were under arrest.

B. F. Phillips, Jr. called me at 845-2493 at 2:20 p.m. on the 5 of November 1987. I read wording that is on the marker and he agreed to let us put it up downtown near the oil derrick if the wording was corrected - that is, remove's minister' after Ben Phillips name.

RE: SITE OF OLD LOG CABIN JAIL Historical Marker

Dear Frances:

I feel that a summary of the events concerning this marker is necessary.

I returned the original 27" x 42" marker with post to the Southwell Company for destruction in late 1988.

Your records will show the inscription for a replacement marker was apparently approved by Deolece Parmalee, October 21, 1968.

I have had many communications with the Gladewater members of the Gregg County Historical Commission, notably John Ben Shepperd and Mildred Wood Barker, who helped clarify the status of the marker. When the corrected inscription was approved, the Gladewater members felt, at that time (1968), there might be adverse publicity if the replacement marker were erected. It is now the feeling of all concerned that this is an appropriate time to erect the corrected marker. Funds are available for this purpose from the Gregg County Historical Commission. Therefore, John Ben secured the property owner's, Judge David Moore's, signature on the application. He also suggested to me that since all the history is on file from the first approved application, in 1967, that it would not have to be repeated.

I trust all is in order.

Enclosed is a check for $650.00.

Sincerely yours,

Norman W. Black, D.D.S.

Dr. Norman W. Black 417 Mobberly Avenue Longview, Texas 75602

Dear Dr. Black:

I regret to inform you that the State Marker Committee has unanimously voted not to approve a replacement marker for the Site of the Old Iog Cabin Jail in Gladewater. Each committee member expressed the feeling that we should abide by our policies not to award replacement markers unless the topic met current criteria. Without proper documentation for the jail's existence and its significance in Gladewater/Gregg County's history (i.e., without a documented narrative history), the committee was not willing to approve the casting of a new marker text for the topic.

Should you wish, at some point in the future, to reapply and submit a narrative history, complete with footnotes and bibliography, we would be happy to take a second look at your request. Until that time, however, the decision of the committee is final.

We will need your social security number in order to process the refund of $650.00 for payment already submitted. As soon as you can provide us with that information, we will start the refund process through our accounting office.

It was good to see you in Dallas. Thanks for all your support and for the good work you do to preserve the heritage of Texas.

Sincerely,

Trances Rickard, Director
